COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR ORDINANCE NO. 200239

Appropriating $393,238.00 from the Unappropriated Balance of the Health Fund; authorizing the City Manager to execute agreements under $100,000.00 with organizations which provide evidence-based programs; requiring that certain agreements with organizations which are over $100,000.00 be subject to Council approval; and recognizing this ordinance as having an accelerated effective date.

WHEREAS, evidence-based programs are programs that have proven effective, and translated into practical models that are widely available to community-based organizations. It is also important that the evaluations themselves have been subjected to critical peer review. That is, experts in the field – not just the people who developed and evaluated the program – have examined the evaluation’s methods and agreed with its conclusions about the program’s effects. Ultimately, when you implement an evidence-based program, you can be confident you’re delivering a program that works and is highly likely to improve the health of your constituents; and

WHEREAS, the evidence-based approach has been used in the crime prevention domain to support programs that have demonstrated their effectiveness in reducing crime and improving community safety; NOW THEREFORE
