3.2.2 AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM

GBA is a federal contractor or subcontractor (i.e., we provide goods or services to fulfill a prime contract with the federal government). As a federal contractor or subcontractor, we are subject to certain laws and regulations administered by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs. In particular, we are subject to Executive Order 11246, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974 ("VEVRAA"), as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002. Collectively, these laws along with the Americans with Disabilities Act, require equal employment opportunities and prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, gender/sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, transgendered status, religion, national origin, disability, and protected veteran status under laws applicable to federal contractors and subcontractors.

As a federal contractor or subcontractor, we are also required to engage in affirmative action to increase employment opportunities for, employ, and advance in employment qualified women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, and protected veterans. GBA, as an organization, is committed to engaging in such affirmative action. Our President and Chief Executive Officer (our highest-ranking U.S. executive) also supports our affirmative action program and efforts. We also expect all of our supervisors and any other employees who are involved in making or recommending employment-related action to be as equally committed and supportive.

As part of our affirmative action efforts, we have developed an affirmative action program. The individual who has the overall responsibility for implementation of our program and our affirmative action activities is our Director of Human Resources. Our affirmative action program includes the policies, practices and procedures to comply with our affirmative action obligations, including an internal audit and reporting system.

We ask all applicants and employees to support our affirmative action program and efforts. We will not discriminate against, retaliate against, intimidate, threaten, coerce, or harass any applicant or employee for:

- Filing a complaint; or
- Assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of Section 503, VEVRAA, or any other federal, state, or local law requiring equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities or protected veterans; or
- Opposing any act or practice made unlawful by Section 503, VEVRAA, their implementing regulations, or any other federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities or protected veterans; or
- Exercising any other right protected by Section 503, VEVRAA, or their implementing regulations.

If any applicant or employee believes in good faith that a violation of this policy has occurred, he/she is encouraged to immediately report it to our Human Resources. If an applicant or employee believes in good faith that he/she has been subjected to harassment based on race, color, gender/sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, transgendered status, religion,
