Discussion (including relationship to other Council actions) Pursuant to Section 2-233, no person can be appointed to the position of firefighter if such person is more than 30 years of age on the last date that applications are accepted by the human resources department. In computing the age of a person pursuant to 2-233, the total length of time that the person has previously served as a member of the fire department may, for the purpose of determining such person's eligibility for appointment to the position of firefighter, be deducted from the person's actual age. Although, this exception does not apply to a person over 45 years of age This legislation would allow the total length of time that the person has previously served as a member of the fire department to include the length of time that	Staff Recommendation	_ For _ Against Reasons Against:
