RESOLUTION NO. TMP-7038

Declaring July 12, 2026 as Frosty Frogs Day in Kansas City.

WHEREAS, Frosty Frogs started as a pop up shop in 2021 when Joye was ten, Abigail was six and Bailey was four and then became a storefront inside the Independence Mall in 2022, and they are now opening their own storefront this Sunday, July 12; and

WHEREAS, all three young women were born and raised in Kansas City and found pleasure in engaging the community to provide an enjoyable environment for all; and

WHEREAS, Frosty Frogs has served as a vehicle to help young people learn about business and entrepreneurship and how to create generational wealth; and

WHEREAS, while Joye, Abigail and Bailey Thomas are growing up within the 3rd district, they recognize the strengths and the challenges within their community and these experiences inspired them to give back, create opportunities for others, and help build a strong future for the place that shaped them; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate Frosty Frogs, a small business that is creating an avenues to contribute to the Kansas City economy; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF KANSAS CITY:

That the Mayor and Council hereby declare July 12, 2026 as Frosty Frog Day in Kansas City; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Resolution be spread upon the Minutes of the Council in testimony thereof and that a copy hereof be presented to Joye, Abigail and Bailey Thomas with the appreciation of the Mayor and Council for their dedication and service to the Kansas City community.
