WHEREAS, the City is also committed to holding predatory tow operators accountable by increasing penalties for such operators in violation of City Code; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds it is necessary to take such measures to protect Kansas Citian from predatory towing practices; NOW, THEREFORE,

A vehicle shall be released upon presentation of reasonably reliable documentation demonstrating ownership or right to possession, including but not limited to a title, bill of sale, valid temporary permit, lease agreement, rental agreement, or insurance documentation, regardless of whether the vehicle has been formally registered with the Department of Revenue, whether more than 30 days have passed since the date of purchase, or whether proof of insurance is presented. Proof of current registration shall not be required for release. Proof of insurance, if requested, must be accepted in electronic or digital form without requiring a paper copy. (c) Towing companies and impound facilities shall not require customers to make an appointment to retrieve a vehicle and must release vehicles during normal operating hours upon proper presentation of documentation. A customer's demeanor or communication, whether over the phone or in person, shall not be grounds to refuse release of a vehicle or to impose additional conditions, delays, or storage charges.

(d) For purposes of this section, "custodian" shall include the registered owner of the vehicle or any person authorized by the registered owner to retrieve the vehicle, as reasonably determined by the police department or based on available documentation presented at the time of release request including a rental or lease agreement, bill of sale, etc. Authorization may be established by presenting a rental or lease agreement, bill of sale, insurance documentation, or written or electronic communication from the owner, accompanied by a copy or image of the owner's government-issued identification. The custodian may also include an employee or agent of a business entity listed as the registered owner, upon presentation of reasonable proof of employment or agency and authorization from the business entity.
