Executive Summary

Directing the City Manager to assess the feasibility of creating a centralized "one-stop shop" for City fee and tax collection and to report back to Council with recommendations, including costs and staffing considerations.

Discussion

The City of Kansas City administers multiple regulatory processes that require the collection of fees and taxes. These fees and taxes are currently collected through several different points of entry, creating a fragmented and cumbersome process for residents and businesses.

Individuals and entities seeking to comply with City regulations, relocate to Kansas City, or open a new business should have a clear, accessible, and efficient pathway to compliance and participation in the local economy
