

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR RESOLUTION NO. 250621

Recognizing the value and importance of Kansas City's commitment to sustainable development by supporting music preservation, education, tourism, and entertainment.

WHEREAS, Kansas City has long recognized the importance of music, the arts, and the creative industries in the development of Downtown, the Crossroads, 18th and Vine, and in neighborhoods in every city council district; and

WHEREAS, Kansas City's musical heritage and creative industries serve as vital economic drivers that support local businesses, attract tourism, create employment opportunities while connecting different communities; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF KANSAS CITY:

Section 1. That the Council hereby recognizes the work and affirms the mission of UNESCO and the City's local partner, Creative City KC, Inc., and the musicians who serve as cultural ambassadors while advancing sustainability, economic development, and community engagement through the arts.

Section 2. That the Council acknowledges that supporting local creative industries and cultural preservation contributes to Kansas City's long-term economic vitality and community well-being.
