To Whom it May Concern

I'm against the extension of the masks. If people want to wear them then that is their business. If businesses want to mandate them then that is their business and I won't be shopping at them.

This has gone on for too long and it's starting to feel like a dictatorship.

I'm vaccinated and there is not reason I should have to wear a mask.

God is in control. If he wants to take us to Heaven because of a virus then so be it. We can't live in fear any longer.

Thank you

Starla
